

Costas's House, Ithaca

Villa Luna, Samos

Local Collection

Close to a town or village for ease of access to the local amenities – all within walking distance.

Costas's House, Ithaca Page 151

We love it because...

- Each of the three bedrooms open straight onto their own balcony overlooking Kioni's waterfront
- 100 steps connect this traditional house to the harbour and a short stroll will take you to the town's five tavernas and four café bars
- A short stroll from four beaches
- While-away the houses watching the comings and goings at the little port
- An ideal choice for those desiring a genuine Greek destination and a relaxed holiday

Villa Nichola, Kefalonia Page 186

We love it because...

- Nothing stands between you and the waters-edge at this sophisticated villa; the waves lap at your terrace and there is a private swimming platform too
- Light and spacious accommodation just 10 minutes' walk away from the heart of Fiscardo and Foki beach
- A good chance of tavernas, restaurants and bars can be found at Fiscardo port
- Perfect for families or groups of friends

Groups Collection

Large villas or neighbouring properties ideal for groups of friends or extended families, spacious both indoors and outdoors

Villa Luna, Samos Page 17

We love it because...

- An independent three bedroomed villa that can be combined with the neighbouring property to accommodate groups of up to 12 people
- The property affords jaw-dropping views over the coast towards Turkey, a scene that can be enjoyed from the private balconies and pool terrace
- There is a small children's pool
- 2km from the picturesque port of Pythagorion and a choice of local tavernas
- Shaded outdoor dining area and barbecue

Villa Gregory, Corfu Page 62

We love it because...

- Directly located on the watersedge in Kalami, a charming hamlet with a small selection of tavernas
- Kalami is famed for its connection to British authors Gerald and Lawrence Durrell, who lived in the White House nearby
- The villa sleeps up to 11 people across four bedrooms
- Relax on your seafront terrace watching the comings and goings in the bay

LUXURY YACHTING

What better way to explore the Greek Islands but on a private luxury yacht. Just sit back and enjoy and prepare to be pampered – no experience required!

Book exclusively for friends and family or simply take a cabin on a cabin-charter week. Long weekends in low season are from as little as £560 per person.

Prices for 7 nights Saturday to Saturday sailing from Corfu start from £1,120 per person. The only extras are for on board dinners if required and alcoholic drinks. Prices do not include flights full package prices available on request.